Washington, D.C. - Eastern Oklahoma Congressman Brad Carson (D-OK) announced today that he will address the Will Rogers Rotary Club on April 19, 2004. The meeting will take place at the East Side Christian Church in Tulsa located at 1438 South Indianapolis, from 12:00 – 1:00 p.m. During his speech Congressman Carson will provide attendees with a legislative update about his work in Washington and issues impacting individuals in Eastern Oklahoma.

“Right now issues such as the economy, job loss and the skyrocketing cost of health insurance are affecting the lives of Oklahomans every day,” said Carson. “I believe that one of my most important duties as a Congressman for Oklahoma’s 2nd district is to keep individuals informed about what I am doing in Congress to protect and preserve their interests on these and other important topics.”
